day News Journal, Wilmington, Del., July 11, 1976

National Digest

Sunday News Journal 7-11-76

An outraged Ruby

Jack Ruby's brother, Earl, says it is "outlandish" to charge that Ruby met with Fidel Castro in 1963 and plotted to kill President John F. Kennedy. Convicted Watergate burglar Frank Sturgis made that allegation Thursday. "The only time Jack Ruby was ever in Havana was to visit a friend in 1959, said Earl. "Jack Ruby was 100 per cent American."